

Partners in Parenting (PIP) Presenters Training Registration Form

The Partners in Parenting (also known as TransParenting®) presenter training provides presenters with the insight and techniques necessary to deliver the Co-Parenting Experience (also known as TransParenting®) curriculum effectively. All trainings are one full day (7 hours). Participants will receive a Partners in Parenting Presenter's Guide, Parent Handbook, and possible CEUs depending on availability.

Please complete the form and send it to ar@familiesfirst.org and call 404-853-2864 if you have any questions. After registration has been finalized, a detailed confirmation email will be sent to the contact listed on this form with a CEU status update as well as training instructions. Please note that if the minimum registration number of 3 is not reached for your selected training session, you will be moved to the next upcoming session.
